This photograph was taken aboard the liner Franconia during the memorial services on board, at the spot where the "Titanic" went down. It shows the passengers assembled on deck while they sang "Nearer My God to Thee."

A wreath made of leaves from the English garden of William T. Stead, the editor who went down on with the "Titanic" was cast into the sea at the request of his children, who commissioned Miss Kate Stevens, long associated with their father in his reform work, to perform this tribute to their beloved dead.

Special Correspondence.

VICTORIA, B. C., Aug. 7.—For his summer's job the Rev. G. R. H. Kinney chose a mighty cold thing—to climb the "devil's stairway" up Mount Robson, the steepest and highest of the Canadian Rockies. Thousands of feet up through snow storms, wintry gales, over icy planes, up sheer precipices, the preacher-mountain climber went. He was the first man to reach the peak 11,000 feet up. When he came down the climbing clergyman told about his trip skyward.

"Though the weather still was unsettled," he said, "my guide and I sought to make our 'highest up' camp on the knob of the northwest shoulder. We carried a fifty-pound sack to an altitude of 10,000 feet when a fierce blizzard suddenly stopped our work. Three inches of snow fell in the first ten minutes. Realizing our danger, for avalanches already were roaring about us, he cached our pack in a niche in the cliffs and hurriedly sought the valley below.

"Three days later we succeeded in getting our packs up to the knob, between 10,500 and 10,700 feet altitude, on the west, where we succeeded in making a bed on a snow-covered shelf. For hundreds of miles the peaks lay at our feet.

"The next day dawned clear and cold and by the time the sun rose we were on the way to the peak. The many cliffs we had to climb (the 'devil's stairway') were only from ten to a hundred feet high, but those smooth, icy slopes between were tipped at an angle of 50 to 70 degrees. One slip meant a fearful slide to death thousands of feet below.

"The storm clouds of sleet swept down and engulfed us while we were at little more than 11,000 feet altitude. We had not enough provision for another two-days' climb; this was our last chance. We despaired of ever reaching the peak, but fortunately, though the clouds were very dense and cold, but little snow fell. The storm was a blessing in a way, for it shut out those fearful slopes below. In five hours of steady work we reached the peak.

"It took us seven hours to get back to our camp. Our provisions were gone and we were hundreds of miles from civilization; for two weeks we lived on what mountain goats and birds we could get."

EUGENIC WEDDING HELD AT ELKHART

Miss Myrtle Mudge becomes the bride of Rev. R. J. Wade, Trinity pastor.

ELKHART, Ind., Aug. 6.—In the presence of nearly 800 guests who packed the auditorium of the Trinity Methodist church to capacity, Miss Myrtle Mudge, daughter of E. M. Mudge, Elkhart, a pioneer photographer, became the bride of Rev. Raymond J. Wade, pastor of Trinity. The ceremony, though simple, was none the less impressive. Rev. Dr. C. U. Wade of Greencastle, father of the bridegroom, conducted the service assisted by Rev. Dr. Somerville Light, superintendent of the Goshen district of the Methodist church.

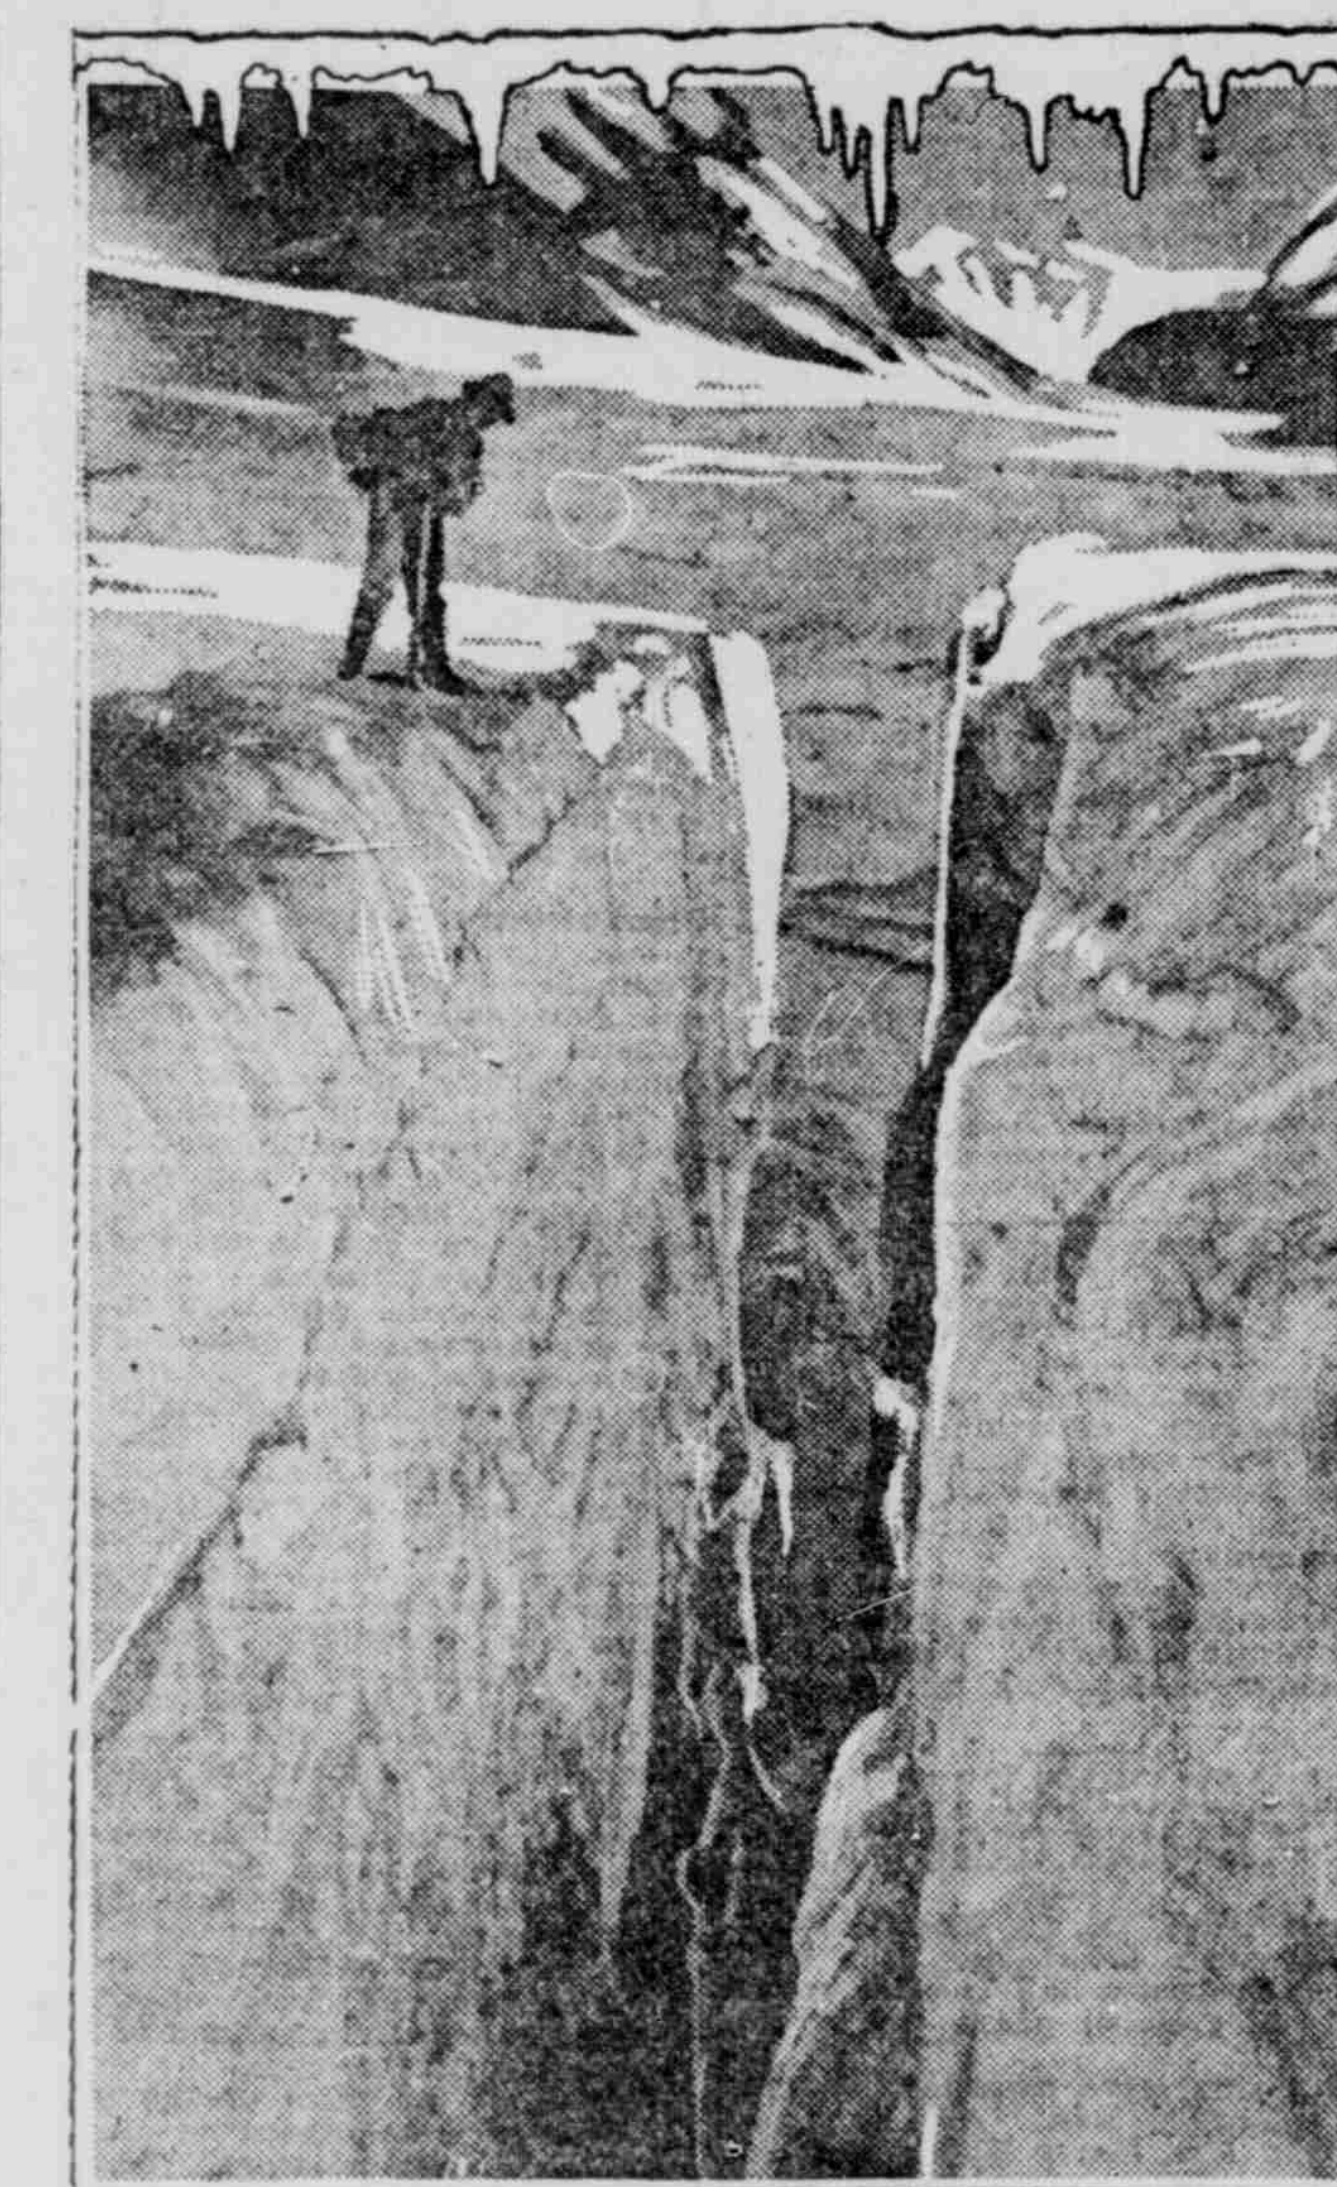

Rev. and Mrs. Wade left on a 10 o'clock train for Detroit from where they will go to Mackinac island to remain several days. They expect to return to Elkhart in about two weeks. Consistent with the principles advanced by the Elkhart Ministerial association of which Rev. Wade is a member, both he and his bride had obtained health certificates from their respective physicians.

WILL SPEND $400,000
 ON NEW IMPROVEMENTS

Power Plant at Christiana Race to be Constructed by H. E. Bucklen of Elkhart.

ELKHART, Ind., Aug. 7.—That H. E. Bucklen intends to spend $400,000 on improvements in or near Elkhart within a year was the information given by a close friend of the traction magnate Wednesday.

Other than a new $250,000 hotel for which specifications have already been made by Architect E. Hill Turnock, Mr. Bucklen already has in course of erection a power plant at the mouth of Christiana race in the northwest part of the city. The plant will furnish power to new pumps to be installed in the station of the Elkhart Water Co., a Bucklen corporation.

A SLIP MEANT A FEARFUL SLIDE TO DEATH THOUSANDS OF FEET BELOW.

A substantial addition to the Bucklen motor truck factory on W. Crawford st., is also contemplated. The wheels of the factory will be turned by power from the new power house upon its completion.

In connection with an alteration to the dam at Adamsville it is said that Mr. Bucklen will enrich the 1,000 acres of the Redfield farm, seven miles north of Elkhart, by an irrigation project.

From there they went up the river to Hen Island dam in a steamer and electric launches, returning to the picnic grounds where a supper was enjoyed.

The features of the evening were various games, contests and music. The committee in charge of the affair consisted of the following members of the faculty: Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Arnold, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Goodenough and Mr. and Mrs. Orville M. Stiffney. In addition to these Messrs. William Roy Bartness, George F. Miltenberger, Walter R. Annis, Leroy W. Toledo, St. Louis & Western Wants to Throw Up Contract With Government.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7.—Complaints from many railroads against alleged inadequate compensation for increased weight of mail matter under the parcel post system, has culminated in a notice to the postoffice department from the Toledo, St. Louis & Western Co. that at the end of 60 days it will discontinue the transportation of mail.

This company's contract will not expire for two years, and the department has informed the management that discontinuance will not be permitted; that the interests of the government and of the public as well as those of the railroad must be considered. Negotiations between Second Assistant Postmaster General Dockery and the railroad management are now in progress, and department officials are confident that the trouble will be adjusted without the necessity of taking it into the courts.

AGAINST CITY ICE PLANT

Mayor Gaynor of New York Vetoes a City Ordinance.

NEW YORK, Aug. 7.—Mayor Gaynor Wednesday vetoed a proposition recently adopted by aldermen appropriating $2,000 for the establishment of a municipal ice plant. "The resolution does not say whether the ice is to be sold, or given away," he commented. "There are many other things we have to do before we may reasonably think of manufacturing ice."

MISHAWAKA GIRL CROWNED QUEEN

Miss Virginia Mulrine is Honored at Annual White Dress Parade Held at Springbrook Park Wednesday.

Miss Virginia Mulrine of Mishawaka was selected queen at the second annual white dress parade at Springbrook park Wednesday afternoon. There were about 3,000 people present and 1,032 girls were dressed in white and carried American flags.

The queen received a beautiful diamond ring and her maids of honor were given smaller ones. Twenty other prizes were given to the participants. Each flag had a number and the twenty lucky numbers received either a gold locket and chain or a silver purse.

The procession was headed by a band. Another feature of the parade was last year's queen and her attendants, who rode in a chariot drawn by white ponies.

The judges, who were Mrs. E. P. Dailey, Miss Merle Shidder and Miss Della Gleason, 1103 Twelfth st., River Park; Pauline Jellison, 1103 S. Fellows st.

Ten gold chains were awarded to Louise Plasted of N. Michigan st.; Dorothy Casad, Rush st.; Marie Martindale, 507 Pennsylvania av.; Dorothy Daine, 11th st., River Park; Helen Bolser, 738 South Bend av.; Leota Bower, 7263 W. Washington av.; Elvora Cook, 521 W. Lawrence st.; Irene Beuter, South Bend av.; Fern Lansdowne, 1315 E. Indiana av.; Gertrude Faucett, 333 W. Lawrence st.; Mildred Wilson, Harrison av.; Mildred Slabough, Marietta st.; Clara Unverferth, 718 Ohio st.

The crown was presented to the winning girl by Atty. J. J. Dore, who gave a very interesting talk. Mr. Dore said "the four qualities that make a perfect girl are modesty, obedience, lovingness and cheerfulness."

The "white dress parade" is distinctly a foreign idea, gleaned by Mr. Williams of Ft. Wayne, with whom Manager Dailey of the park has been associated with in the park business for a number of years.

During one of his trips to Africa he witnessed the procession in honor of the Virgin at Algiers. In that city is one of the most impressive cathedrals of the world, the Notre Dame of Algiers, which is celebrated for its image of the Blessed Virgin, known as the Black Virgin. The procession in honor of this Virgin was composed of a thousand young girls robed in white with floating silvery veils, and each carried lighted candles. The spectacle made such a vivid impression on the American traveler that he formed a plan whereby he could use the idea in his own country.

The idea resulted in the plan for Girls' day, and the white dress parade with American flags instead of candles in the hands of the young participants. The result of the plan has given South Bend and Mishawaka one of the most impressive and beautiful festivals of the year.

Plea for Equal Suffrage Draws Declarations From Three Members of Senate.

By GILSON GARDNER.
 WASHINGTON, Aug. 7.—The presentation of woman suffrage petitions to congress resulted in declarations against woman suffrage by the following three senators: Bankhead of Alabama, Martine of New Jersey, and Thornton of Louisiana. Declarations in favor of woman suffrage were made by the following 22 senators: Ashurst of Arizona, Bristow of Kansas, Chamberlain of Oregon, Clapp of Minnesota, Crawford of South Dakota, Gallinger of New Hampshire, Jones and Polk of Washington, La Follette of Wisconsin, Owen of Oklahoma, Pittman of Nevada, Pomerene of Ohio, Ransdell of Louisiana, Shafroth and Thomas of Colorado, Sherman of Illinois, Smith and Townsend of Michigan, Smith of Utah, Thompson of Kansas, Warren of Wyoming, and Works of California.

Other senators, who took the women's petitions and presented them to the senate without comment, or with non-committal expressions, were 22 in number, as follows: Bacon and Smith of Georgia, Brandegee of Connecticut, Euton of Ohio, Chilton of West Virginia, Clarke of Arkansas, Dill of Rhode Island, Dillingham of Vermont, Gronna of North Dakota, James of Kentucky, Johnson of Maine, Johnston of Alabama, Kenyon of Iowa, Kern of Indiana, Lewis of Illinois, Lodge and Weeks of Massachusetts, McLean of Connecticut, Martin and Swanson of Virginia, Myers of Montana, Oliver and Penrose of Pennsylvania, Saulsbury of Delaware, Sheppard of Texas, Shields of Tennessee, Simmons of North Carolina, Smith of South Carolina, Smith of Maryland, Smith of Arizona, Stone of Missouri, Sutherland of Utah, Vardaman of Mississippi.

The other members of the senate either were not present or did not arise to present petitions. Some of them no doubt were purposely not present.

Kent Quotes Bible.
 Congress would be a less joyous place without William Kent of California. Ever little while he is doing something worth knowing about. For instance, he got up on Aug. 1 and moved the speaker of the unanimous consent be accorded him to print part of the Bible in the record. The part he wanted printed, he explained, was some comment by the author of the book of Proverbs on the Monroe doctrine. The insertion is as follows:

My son, if thou hast become surety for thy neighbor, if thou hast stricken thy hand for a stranger, thou art snared with the words of thy mouth.

He that passeth by and vexes himself with strife that belongeth not to him is like one that taketh a dog by the ears.

He that is surety for a stranger

Slap at Supreme Court.

If judges of the United States supreme court were ordinary human beings we should wonder what they think of the annual report of the Standard Oil Co., which shows that this year's earnings will approximate $100,000,000 as compared to $80,000,000 last year.

It was not many months ago that the supreme court officially denounced the Standard Oil Co. as one of our most vicious trusts, and decreed that this trust should be dissolved. If their minds operate like ordinary minds we wonder what they think when they perceive that their decree of dissolution does not dissolve; that its only result is to increase the net earnings from $80,000,000 to $100,000,000, which is 20 percent on the enormous value of property which has been amassed, according to the supreme court, "through monopoly and oppression."

Within this year the Standard Oil Co. has increased the price of gasoline from 11 to 18 cents a gallon and kerosene from six to eight cents a gallon, and this in spite of the general improvement of business and large earnings. It has done this because it could, and it could because it is an undissolved monopoly.

Ten percent on the corporation's capital stock would be ample dividend for my business, so the additional $50,000,000 which has been taken from the people is the annual tax of an oppressive corporation which has been "dissolved" by the supreme court. And yet Justice Day declares the tendency of the public to speak disrespectfully of our courts.
